average daily balance:

You pay interest on the average balance owed during the billing cycle. The creditor figures the balance in your account on each day of the billing cycle, then adds together these amounts and divides by the number of days in the billing cycle.

adjusted balance:

You pay interest on the opening balance after subtracting the payment or returns made during the month.

previous balance:

You pay interest on the opening balance, regardless of payments made during the month.

past-due balance:

No finance charge is added if the full payment is received within the grace period. If it is not received, a finance charge for the unpaid amount is added on to your next bill.

examples of finance charges

	average daily balance	adjusted balance	previous balance
monthly	1.5%	1.5%	1.5%
rates	18%	18%	18%
previous balance	$400	$400	$400
payments	$300	$300	$300

On 15th day (new balance = $100)

average daily balance	$250*	N/A	N/A
finance charge	$3.75 (1.5% x $250)	$1.50 (1.5% x $100)	$6.00 (1.5% x $400)

 $($400 \times 15 \text{ days}) + ($100 \times 15 \text{ days}) = $250 \times 30 \text{ days}$

risks associated with decision making

---

if you think the reasons for the denial are valid:

- Ask the creditor if you can provide additional information or arrange alternate credit terms.
- Apply to another creditor whose standards may be different.
- Do the things you need to do to improve your credit worthiness (pay bills on time, increase income, reduce spending, obtain a secured card, etc.) and then reapply.

if you are not sure whether the reason for the denial is valid:

- Ask the creditor to explain why you were denied.
- Review your credit history.
- If you find your credit history contains errors, take steps to correct the errors.

if you believe the reason for the denial is invalid and that the creditor has discriminated against you:

- Notify the federal enforcement agency whose name you were given by the creditor. The federal enforcement agency will investigate and report back to you.
- If you can afford it, hire an attorney to file suit against the creditor. If the court determines the creditor did discriminate, the creditor will be required to pay you actual damages plus punitive damages.
