

Removal of Military Evaluation Credits

Evaluation of Military experience (for example the AARTS transcripts) for granting credit for transcript purposes at Northwestern State University will continue as currently established with the following exceptions:

- 1) Students desiring credits which meet only degree requirements or degree elective requirements must make the request in writing.
- 2) The Registrar's Office will evaluate Community College of the Air Force (CCAF) transcripts.