Application Process:

Parents may apply Online through the U.S. Department of Education Direct Loan website (<https://studentaid.gov/plus-app/>) and sign a Master Promissory Note (<https://studentaid.gov/mpn/>).

Awarding:

The school will certify approved Direct Parent Plus Loans.

The amount of loan is entered under the appropriate fund code in the FAM system for the appropriate term/semester.

The Online Application allows the parent to choose how to apply excess fund:

- a. refund to the student
- b. refund to the parent

There is a loan fee that is deducted from each disbursement. These fees are determined by the Department of Education at the time of disbursement.

Direct Parent Plus Denials

Should the Parent Plus loan be denied – Unsubsidized loan eligibility will be determined for the student and awarded if eligible. Freshman and Sophomore can receive an additional $4000 and Junior and Seniors can receive an additional $5000. Students cannot receive more than $23,000 cumulatively from additional unsubsidized loans from Parent Plus denials.
