

OUR MISSION

1. To ensure the rights and welfare of everyone involved in NSU-sponsored research that employs human subjects.
2. To educate researchers and the general public about how to protect human subjects of research.
3. To support and promote research activities at NSU and around the world.

MENTOR ONLINE SYSTEM

The Mentor Online System is the new submission system for IRB applications.

- The system is available to submit applications.
- Applications are no longer accepted via email.
- Single sign-on is available by accessing the link from the NSU IRB webpage when signed into your NSU account.

WHAT IS THE IRB?

The IRB is an administrative body established by the US federal government to protect the rights and welfare of human subjects recruited to participate in research activities conducted with the help and support of the institution with which it is affiliated.
