

NORTHWESTERN STATE

Master of Social Work

To affirm the importance of integrity, both as students and professionals, the Master of Social Work department at Northwestern State University of Louisiana has adopted an honor code. Students are expected to adhere to the code. Violations of the code will result in disciplinary action up to and including dismissal from the program. Do not hesitate to contact our department if there are any questions regarding the honor code.

I affirm the importance of integrity in all aspects of life and work. I abide by the NASW Code of Ethics which requires me to engage in an ethical and competent manner. I affirm the importance of integrity in all aspects of life and work, to include academic endeavors. I commit myself to engage in truthfulness, honor and responsibility. I hold myself to the highest standards of academic integrity as it is an important aspect of personal and professional integrity. I affirm that I have upheld these principles in my academic work and have not witnessed or participated in any acts that would violate academic integrity or the NASW Code of Ethics.
