

SPECIFIC AREAS OF COOPERATION

BETWEEN

Universidad ORT Uruguay

And

Northwestern State University

WHEREAS: the Universidad ORT Uruguay, (hereinafter "ORT") represented by its President, Jorge Grünberg is a non- profit private organization established in 1942 at Montevideo, Uruguay and officially certified as a private University in 1996.

WHEREAS: Northwestern State University (hereinafter referred to as "NSU"), represented by its president Dr. Marcus Jones, is an institution founded since 1884 to provide higher education at the University of Louisiana System, located at Natchitoches, Louisiana, United States of America.

RECOGNIZE: Their legal personality and common interests in the development of bilateral relations, convinced that cooperation between institutes of higher education contribute to cultural enrichment, scientific progress and the consolidation of friendship between the two parties, agree:

I. General

Article 1 The institutions agree to exchange experience and information on questions of pedagogy, methodology, organizations, the contents of instruction and the training of faculty and students, as appropriate and according to their possibilities.

Article 2 The institutions agree to exchange research papers, teaching materials, syllabi, curricula, as well as exhibitions and other materials, as appropriate, illustrating the activity and achievements of both institutions and according to the internal regulations of each one.

Article 3 The institutions agree to exchange faculty members, professional administrators and students (Undergraduate and Graduate) who are interested in doing so, for educational and cultural purposes in this particular project the following number of faculty members, professional administrators and students are defined within this document.

Article 4 The institutions will be able to develop research projects in related subjects that they consider relevant/appropriate, for which they must carry through the necessary procedures.

Article 5 Both parties agree that the collaborative efforts in this document do not represent obligation for any of the parties and that before the beginning of any activity, they must be mutually agreed through the signing of specific agreements.

II. Exchange of Faculty Members

Article 6 Both institutions may exchange faculty members as needed and according to their possibilities.

Article 7 The exchange faculty member shall participate in teaching, delivering lectures or giving special programs such as workshops for people of the receiving country related with the host institution.

Article 8 Any cost and expenses that may be incurred by jointly performing research programs and research activities shall be negotiated and agreed upon to the satisfaction of both parties before starting such programs and activities.

III. Exchange of Students

Article 9 Both institutions may exchange students: with a maximum of 2 students per academic year for 1 semester each, or 1 student per academic year for 2 semesters. The number of exchange students may increase per semester upon prior agreement from both institutions.

Exchange students will pay tuition and fees required by their Home institution but will be exempt from payment of tuition fees at the Host university.

Room, Meal Plan, Books, mandatory fees and health insurance will be the responsibility of the visiting student.

Article 10 Both Parties agree to the goal of having a balance in the exchange over a five-year period.

Article 11 The exchange of students shall be for (1) study in degree programs (undergraduate and graduate) and/or (2) participation in research programs, cultural activities, language learning, internships, or any other suited academic activity.

Article 12 While participating in the exchange program at the host institution, the exchange student will be responsible for the cost of travel expenses to and from the host country, accommodation in the host country, all books, equipment and consumables, and other incidental expenses. All International students are required to have adequate health insurance coverage that meets the minimum requirements of the host institution or country. The host institution bears no responsibility for providing funds to an exchange student for any purpose.

Article 13 Admission and graduation of exchange students shall be made in accordance with the charter and policies of the host institution, in accordance with the specific agreements established in writing by both parties, which will be provided to the participating students in the project.

Article 14 Students, teachers or exchange administrative staff are subject to the student code of conduct and academic policies and other applicable regulations of host institutions.

Any appeal to violations of this type of policy must follow the procedures of the host institution with written notice to the sending institution

IV. Joint Research and Others

Article 15 The institutions agree to carry out joint research on current problems of mutual interest, as appropriate.

Article 16 This does not preclude the institutions agreeing to discuss other proposals relating to future collaboration in exchange including visits, publications, etcetera...but such a future collaboration would be executed with a new template identifying the number of duties, responsibilities, and nature of the agreement.

Article 17 The host institution shall not bear any financial responsibility for visiting staff, except as may be arranged and explicitly documented for specific cases.

V. Terms of Agreement

Article 18 Each institution should designate a liaison to oversee and facilitate the implementation of this cooperation agreement. "ORT" appoints the Director of International Affairs and "NSU" designates the Director of the International Student Resource Center & Study Abroad.

Article 19 Institutions undertake to refrain from using any name, emblem, logo, trademark or other sign associated with the other institution without having previously obtained the written authorization of the other to do so. In addition, this agreement does not grant either party the right to use other trademarks, trade names or service marks of the other.

Article 20 If as a result of the collaborative activities defined under the terms of this agreement, results are produced that have the potential to become INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY, both institutions must immediately notify the other institution of the results and bring together the designated representatives in order to establish an equitable and reasonable distribution of property rights and other interests that may arise from it. Such discussions should at all times endeavor to preserve and continue a harmonious relationship between the two parties.

All publications resulting from the collaboration between the two institutions must give due recognition to the other institution for their contributions. In addition, the relationship between the two institutions should be mentioned in all courses and formal presentations resulting from collaboration under the terms set forth in this agreement.

Article 21 The institutions shall keep confidentiality with respect to the activities covered by this Agreement, in cases where it is considered necessary.

Article 22 The institutions agree that the personnel commissioned by each of them for the realization of the subject matter of this agreement shall be understood to be exclusively related to that which employs it. Therefore, it will assume its responsibility for this concept and in no case will be considered as solidarity patterns or substitutes; In virtue of this, each one will be responsible in matters of housing, social security, union contributions; Taxes and other.

Article 23 This Agreement is established for a period of 5 years, effective on the date of its last signing, but may be terminated early by an institution upon written notice to the other institution as least six months prior to termination (may not exceed the terms of the master MOU between the UL System and ORT Uruguay). The Agreement will be reviewed in its final year by representatives from both institutions and may be extended by mutual written approval of both institutions. In the event of termination, the institutions shall endeavor to minimize the disruption to students then participating in any programs or activities developed under the auspices of this agreement.

Article 24 Issues not stipulated in this contract will be decided by mutual agreement, which must be in writing. Details of these issues may be included in the appendix to this agreement.

Article 25 Nothing in the agreement shall be executed if the institutions do not have identifiable funds to support the activities.

Article 26 The present agreement and the specific instruments for the activities that derive from it, is a product of good faith, for which reason they will carry out all possible actions for their due fulfillment, but in case of any discrepancy, on their interpretation or fulfillment, voluntarily and by mutual agreement, shall be resolved between the holders thereof.

Article 27 Notwithstanding this particular project agreement, all activities are governed by state and federal law and each project must met the requirements of those laws as it proceeds

Article 28 This agreement will be governed by the terms outlined in the Memorandum of Understanding between ORT and the University of Louisiana System (UL System) dated and signed on 15 April 2021 and is subject to University of Louisiana staff approval.

This academic cooperation agreement is signed in duplicate, two in English, in the city of Montevideo, Uruguay and Natchitoches, United States respectively.

Dr. Jorge Grünberg
President, ORT

Marcus D.
Jones

Digitally signed by Marcus D. Jones
DN: cn=Marcus D. Jones,
o=Northwestern State University,
ou=President's Office,
email=marcusj@nswu.edu, c=US
Date: 2021.07.06 14:46:44 -0500

Dr. Marcus Jones
Acting President, Northwestern State University

DATE: July 12, 2021

DATE: July 6, 2021