Fond Farewells

While graduation looms large for many of the Louisiana Scholars' College family, and we prepare to send our seniors on to the next phase of their lives, there are two other members of the Scholars' family that will be leaving in College in the not-too-distant future.

Dr. Rick Jensen and Rhonda Wood

We are inviting all members of the Scholars' College family to share their thoughts, memories, and well wishing about these two amazing individuals. Those will be featured in our May Newsletter.

Please email them (and any photographs) to kirsten@nsula.edu.

Call for Papers for 30th annual Research Day

The NSU Research Council will host NSU's 30th Annual Research Day Thursday, April 20, 2017.

Faculty, graduate students, and undergraduate students are invited to submit proposals to present their scholarly or creative projects at Northwestern's 30th Annual Research Day.

Once again, we will be able to stream virtual presenters, so distance learning students and faculty are encouraged to participate. Both oral and poster presentations are welcome. For information about previous presentations, please refer to last year's program at <http://researchday.nsula.edu/>
