

Mission of the School of Allied Health

Northwestern State University College of Nursing and School of Allied Health serves an increasingly diverse student population while advancing the mission of the University by offering excellent and innovative undergraduate, graduate, certificate, and continuing education programs that are designed to assist individuals in achieving their goal to become responsible and contributing members of an interprofessional global community that improves the health of our region, state, and nation.

Bachelor of Science in Radiologic Sciences (BSRS) Program Mission

The mission of the Northwestern State University Radiologic Sciences Program is to provide students with advanced knowledge and skills through guided experiences and clinical practice that culminate into the development of professional radiologic technologists who become an integral part of the healthcare community and society.

BSRS Program Goals and Student Learning Outcomes

GOALS	STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES
Students will be clinically competent.	Students will perform quality radiographic procedures. Students will develop assessment skills of a radiographer.
Students will demonstrate critical thinking skills.	Students will evaluate a clinical situation and perform accordingly using critical thinking skills. Students will critically evaluate and assess challenges within the healthcare administrative setting.
Students will demonstrate an understanding of professionalism.	Students will demonstrate an understanding of professional advocacy. Students will integrate adherence to professional behaviors.

Students will demonstrate the ability to communicate effectively.

Students will develop oral communication skills.
Students will demonstrate written communication skills.